Dear Friends!

The Holidays are over but winter is bringing lots of opportunities for fun! You can learn how to snowshoe, cross country ski, or you can snowmobile miles of trails. We also have some great events to entertain you through those cold winter months.

Winter Outdoor Fun!

There's no shortage of fun...snowmobiling, cross country skiing, indoor skating, snowboarding, snowshoeing and even winter camping. Manitowoc offers 348 miles of state snowmobile trails plus river trails and those maintained by local clubs. Point Beach State Forest grooms 11 miles of pristine cross-country ski trails and also accommodates winter campers for those hearty in spirit. Bring along your snowshoes and on weekends you'll find a roaring fire at the lodge. Other cross-country trails are in Manitowoc's Silver Creek and Henry Schuette Parks, Camp Sinawa near Valders, Woodland Dunes Nature Center and Collins Marsh Wildlife Area.

Bring the kids, and the toboggan or inter-tube for a fun day of sledding or tubing at Silver Creek Park in Manitowoc. There are large hills and small hills that the whole family can enjoy.

Manitowoc and Two Rivers invites you to skate in our indoor Manitowoc County Ice Center. Skate rentals, skate sharpening and concession stand are available.
